Edna Bailey Principal

Marion BoldenSuperintendent

To The Class of 2001

Congratulations on having achieved one of life's significant milestones - earning your high school diploma. You have persevered to make this happen. Graduation is both an ending and a beginning. The experiences and knowledge which you have attained at Weequahic High School should enable you to be more perceptive, more sensitive, and more concerned for the overwhelming educational, economic, and ethical problems with which all of us are faced.

I challenge you to set meaningful goals and strive hard to reach all of them. Your future achievements will be based upon your efforts and your commitment. Through your faith and through your deeds, you shape your life, and eventually, the live of others as well.

Remember, I'm depending on you to become our great leaders of the future. Continue to be life-long learners and experience a full life, rich with rewards of accomplishments. May God bless each of you.

*Sincerely,
Edna H. Bailey*

Dedicated To Mr. P. Young

Mr. Phillip Young. Health / Physical Education

The June 2001 graduating class wish to thank Mr. Young for his many years of untiring, dedicated service to the physical, academic and social growth of the students placed in his care. Our Weequahic High School Legend 2001 Yearbook is therefore dedicated to him. Mr. Young represents the many faculty and staff members , who have helped us arrive at this juncture in our lives.

"Mr. Young is very concerned about the students. He wants you to do well and he's on you at all times. He's a nice teacher." - Sheena Best

To the Senior Class,

WE CAME to Weequahic as young students seeking wisdom and knowledge.

WE SAW before us a road that could, at times, be fun and sometimes would be very difficult; but we knew that we were ready to accept the 4 year challenge.

WE CONQUERED as true believers in the importance of education and the opportunities it brings.

As Class President, I congratulate each of you for doing what you had to do to succeed. It is my desire that you find happiness in your future. Keep your head up, because God will always look you out.

We came, we saw, and we conquered !

HOMECOMING 2000

The Homecoming Parade was a huge success. The parade route began at Bergen Street and Mapes Avenue. Escorted by Newark's policemen, the "Royal Court" and the Calendar/Zodiac winners made their way past the many community on-lookers. Pride and appreciation seemed to fill the air as the Weequahic Marching Band and Band Front led the way .

My name is Thressa Dragan. My parents are Lurline and Richard. They tell me I'll be rich. I have 3 brothers and 1 sister. Growing up I got into everything I saw. My nickname is Tweety Bird because I have a big head and a little body.

Hi! My name Aaliyah Finney. I was born on a Saturday in August in Beth Isreal Hospital. My parents are Lorraine and Anthony. When I was born they said I was voted the prettiest baby in the hospital. The doctor didn't have to smack my rear because I was already screaming. I have 1 1/2 sisters. Growing up I always hung out with my father, I'm a Daddy's Girl. When I grow up I'm going to be a lawyer or a fashion designer.

I'm Latoya Ingram. My parents are Paris and Allen. My parents always say I'm wonderful because God don't make no junk. I have 2 brothers and 1 sister. Growing up I always looked good and dressed nice. They nicknamed me Smiley because I always smiled. I'm going to be a nurse.

I'm Rasheem Curry. I am "Little Man" to my mom, Eunice. I have 3 brothers and 3 sisters. Even though I was born before my twin brother; he was always taller. He was called Big Man. I'm going to surprise everyone with my success.

I was born on a table in the hospital to Filman and Doris. I was a big head baby boy. I have 4 brothers and 3 sisters. They nicknamed me Tyson because I would talk like him. I going to be an engineer. I'm Rameen Cooper.

Hi! I'm Kasheena Allen. I was born on a Tuesday in the Spring to Adrena and Paul. Because I was so skinny, they nicknamed me Bones. I have 1 brother and 3 sisters. Growing up I would always in someone's business, I plan to be a lawyer.

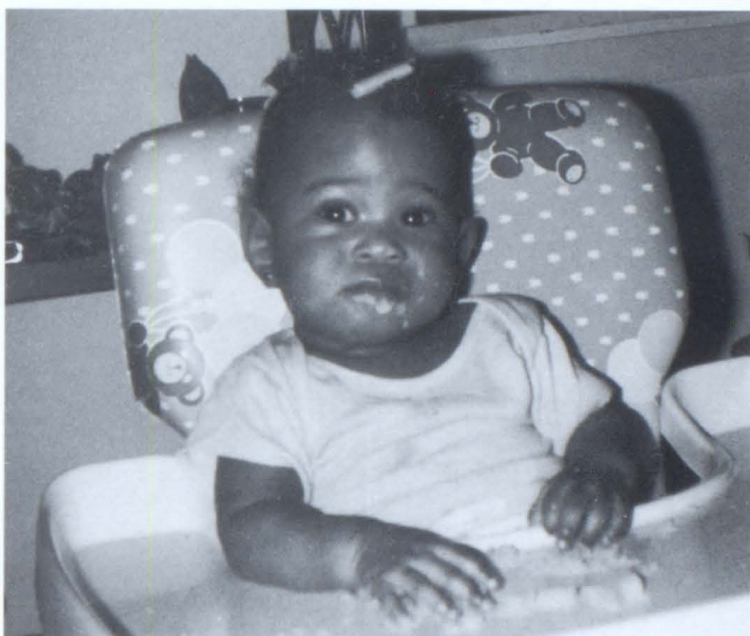

I'm Haniyyah Allen. Adrena and Paul are my parents. I was born in the Winter. I had big teeth so they nicknamed me Rabbitt. When I'm full grown, I'll be an OBGYN nurse.

I was born on a cold day in the hospital to Cassandra and Angelo. They always told me that I would be successful in life. I have 2 brothers and 2 sisters. They nicknamed me Ce-Ce because I am bright. I love to have fun and play. In my future I will be working in the telecommunications field.

Last Will and Testament

We, the June 2001 graduating class of Weequahic High School, in the city of Newark, county of Essex, state of New Jersey, under Superintendent Marion Bolden, Assistant Benjamin O'Neal, Principal Edna Bailey and Co-Advisors; Rosalind Robinson and Thomas Tilley; being of sound mind and boby, do hereby declare and publish the following to be our Last Will and Testament. This document cannot be contested under any conditions or upon any grounds.

- I. We bequeath the hallowed halls and classrooms to all that desire to further their education in an inspiring, academic environment.*
- II. To Principal Edna Bailey, we leave our sincere gratitude for her patience and understanding. Also, a lifetime supply of aspirins.*
- III. To our advisors, Ms. Robinson and Mr. Tilley, we leave our heartfelt thanks for the guidance and worthy council you provided during our junior and senior years.*
- IV. To the entire faculty and staff of Weequahic High School, we leave a sincere desire that you give to the future seniors the same degree of knowledge patience and goodwill afforded to us.*
- V. To the juniors, we leave a few non-graduating seniors who have decided to stay behind and assist you in your senior year.*
- VI. To our Marching Band, the "Best Band In The Country", thank you, thank you. We will always be "in step" with you.*
- VII. To our athletic teams; you are "the best" Thanks for all the great games and memories that we will cherish. A special...special thanks to the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association Group II Basketball Champions!*
- VIII. To Weequahic, we leave the echo of our voices and footsteps. WE CAME as freshmen, WE SAW as sophomores and juniors, WE CONQUERED as seniors. We promise to make you proud of us.*
- IX. Finally, to all we bequeath our illustrious "2001 Legend Yearbook. May it serve as a constant reminder that we passed this way.... The way of the Mighty Weequahic Indian.*

We do hereby appoint Ms. Riley and the Yearbook Staff, executors and trustees over our Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, we hereunto set our hand this 28th of June 2001.

Witnessed:
Lauren Bates
Isidell Riley

Hail Weequahic

Our challenge to the Orange and Brown
As Orange and Brown we sway
Undaunted our refrain is sung
Weequahic will win the fray.

All hail our steadfast Indian host
Of braver warriors, none can boast.
And we will fight to do or die,
And win for you, dear Weequahic High.

No one knows what tomorrow holds
But we have to keep the faith alive.
It's hard to do, when there are ups and downs.
Yet, Weequahic taught us to strive.

So, hail fond Weequahic,
We pledge our faith and honor true.
Your mighty name will loudly ring
To Weequahic High, praises we sing.

From our fortress on the hill,
Where we stand side by side,
We sing your praises with a will,
As family we rise !

It's so hard, so hard to be an Indian,
It's so hard to be a Weequahic Indian !

Woo..oooo....ooooo !!!

#1 Soriah Hippolyte

I was born on St. Lucia in the Carribean. My favorite TV show is Dawson's Creek. My favorite subjects are English and Calculus. I love travelling, dancing and socializing with my friends. People describe me as respectful, disciplined and kind. I try very hard to live up to those compliments. I am so proud to represent my Senior Class as their Valedictorian.

Christopher Denham

I was born in Manhattan, New York. I have 2 brothers and 1 sister. My favorite TV show is "Oz" and my favorite book is "The Catcher In The Rye". My favorite song is "Shed No Tears" by Tupac Shakur, who was a brilliant misunderstood man. People see me as down-to earth, intelligent and friendly. I'm glad they do.

#3 Laquana Walker

I've been described as intelligent, respectful and athletic. That's good because I love to eat. I eat at least 5 times a day. I love writing poetry, working out, being in the Marching Band and Track. If I could speak to anyone, I'd tell my deceased father "thanks and I love you for all the love and support you gave me."

#4 Kiyannah Culver

Even though I'm referred to as the "evil twin" I am proud of my compassionate and caring nature. I love basketball, softball, bowling and movies. My favorite book that was also a movie is "A Lesson Before Dying". I am very happy with my ranking. Watching my favorite TV show, Jeopardy, probably helped.

#5 Kiyshonah Culver

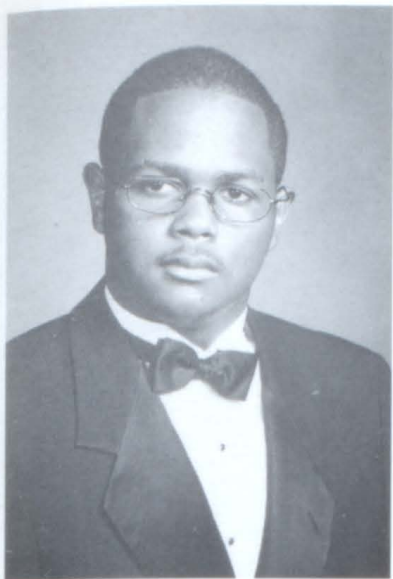

Kiyannah and I are paternal twins. My favorite book is "Manchild In The Promised Land" and my favorite TV show is The Simpsons. I love listening to music, talking with my friends and basketball. If I could talk to anyone, it would be Vince Carter. They say I'm smart, respectful and athletic. I'm also proud to be an Indian.

#6 Nicole Kearns

Although some people say I'm nice, annoying and sometimes silly, there is also the serious side. I like to read, skate, go to movies and dance. My favorite school subjects are English and Science. My favorite book is "Black Boy". If I could, I'd like to speak with Dr. Martin L. King, Jr. I am inspired by his life. It helps me remain strong.

Top Scholars

#7 Robert Stevenson

To all my peers at Weequahic High School, remember if you fail to plan then you plan to fail.

#8 Patricia Jean-Louis

Some say that I am beyond my years, but I just put my trust in the Lord in the face of adversity. I like "The Simpsons", the movie "Panther", creative writing and critiquing the rhymes of rappers. I would like to converse with Prudigy of Mobb Deep because he's brilliant.

#9 Linda Oppong

I was born in Ghana, West Africa. I have 2 sisters. My hobbies are reading, singing and talking on the telephone. If I could talk to anyone in the world, it would be Nelson Mandela. I admire his braveness and courage as he protested, in jail, for his country. People see me as friendly, respectful and I desire to always be humble.

#10 Asia Battle

I am very proud to be included in the Top Twenty Scholars of the graduating Class of 2001. I have 1 brother and I hope he'd be proud of me also. I was a member of the school bowling team and I was a member of Phi Delta Kappa Zeta. Remember don't waste time, for life is but time. Use your time wisely.

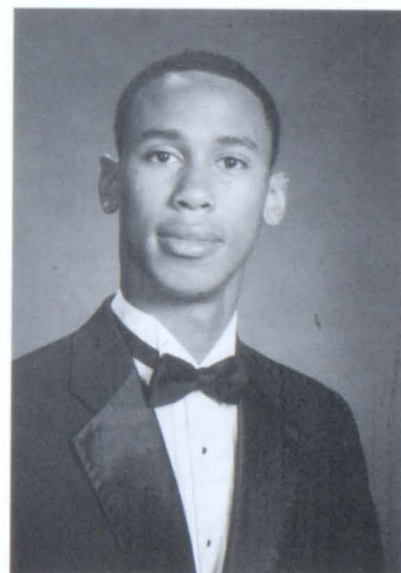

#11 Joyce Roberts

Giosue Borsi's quote has been inspirational to me. He said, "When I talked no one listened to me. But as soon as I acted I became persuasive, and I no longer found anyone incredulous." In other words talk less and show more action.

#12 Darnell Tilley

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has"

- M. Mead

Top Scholars

#13 Sharik Brown

You may not be surprised to know that I like indoor quiet activities. I collect cards. My favorite book is "I Know Why The Caged Bird Sings". It would be wonderful to be have Maya Angelou speak to the Class of 2001 and give some inspiring words of wisdom. I like "The Parkers" and History. They say I'm smart, funny and nice.

#14 Venita Stines

I am an only child who like singing, acting and taking pictures. I'm also very ambitious. I will succeed. I like "Moesha" and Journalism. My favorite movie is "Love and Basketball". One of the best books I've read is "The Coldest Winter Ever". I would have loved to have met my grandfather. He died before I was born.

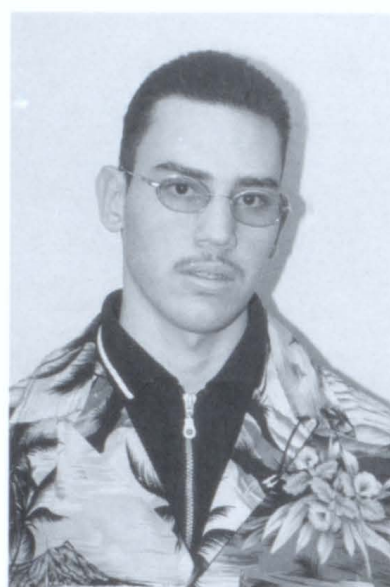

#15 Jasmine Ali

Born in Newark, lived in Atlanta and back to Newark, I am proud of setting goals and achieving them. I am glad people describe me as a go-getter and friendly. I like to model and design cloths. I like the book "Black Boy" and the movie "American Pie". I'd like to talk with Mary J. Blige. I admire her pride of self and her music.

#16 Joel Roman

I was born in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico of which I am very proud. I love to listen to music. One of my favorite songs is "Every Little Thing" by BMX. I like the book, "The Learning Tree", US History and Math. I want to thank my mother for supporting me in my studies. She has always been there for me.

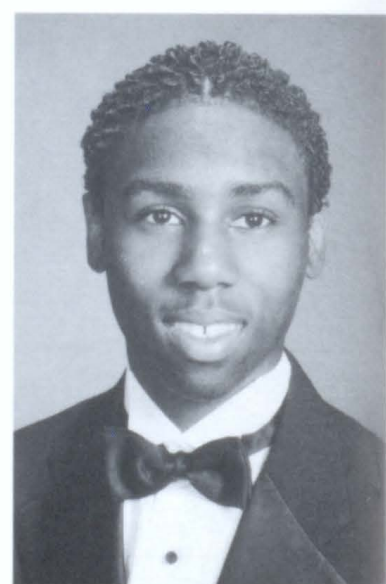

#17 Monica Taylor

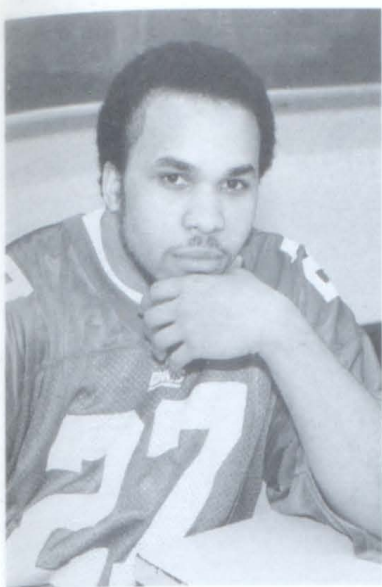

Born in Newark with 1 sibling, I developed the hobbies of reading, writing poems and talking on the phone. Many people say I am intelligent, pretty and nice. I also want them to know I am sensitive at times. I like "The Parkers" and the movie "Love and Basketball". I would love to meet Kobe Bryant. I'm his #1 fan.

#18 Lamar Harris

"It takes less time to do a thing right than it does to explain why you did it wrong."
- Henry W. Longfellow
Always strive for what is right; even if it turns out wrong and it will sometimes, you keep on going. Success is just around the next corner.

Top Scholars

#19 Kamil Horton

Some say I'm out-spoken, intelligent and lovable. I like writing poetry, football, collecting basketball cards, reading and shopping. My favorite show is "WWF Monday Night Raw & Smackdown". Favorite subjects are Creative Writing and Language Arts. I'm proud that I know my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

#20 Lauren Dukes

Born in Orange, New Jersey, I have 1 sister. Some of my favorite passtimes are softball, basketball and going to the movies. My favorite movie is "Love and Basketball". My favorite subjects are English and Math. I would love to talk to Maya Angelou. She inspires me to keeping moving forward and being the best me.

Charlene Reaves

I'm a native Newarker. I have 2 sisters. My favorite book is "Friends & Lovers"; song is "Promise" by Jagged Edge and movie is "Love and Basketball". Three words that describe me are: ambitious, outspoken and crazy. I liked school and I encourage evryone to do their best because you can't stay in school forever.

Tequila Johnson

If you want to be successful you should: be prepared, be a listener, be a doer, be a tough worker, be a risk taker, be a goal setter, be confident, be responsible, be polite, be on time, be friendly and most of all be here.

Amelia McCray

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is: What are you doing for others?" - Dr. MLK Jr. Doing for others helps you appreciate your worth, it raises your self-esteem and proves just how valuable you are to the world.

Antonette Parsley

Born in Tamalia, people describe me as smart, industrious and a bookworm. I like to work on writing poems and stories. My favorite book is "All's Well That Ends Well". I like the song, "I Want To Fly Away" and the movie, "Interview With The Vampire". If it were possible, I'd love to talk with Dr. Martin Luther King.

"The Contest"

"With the help of English teachers, Mrs. Annie Williams and Mr. Robert Hylton, I was blessed to win first place in the Newark Museum Essay Contest. This seemed to be an impossible situation.

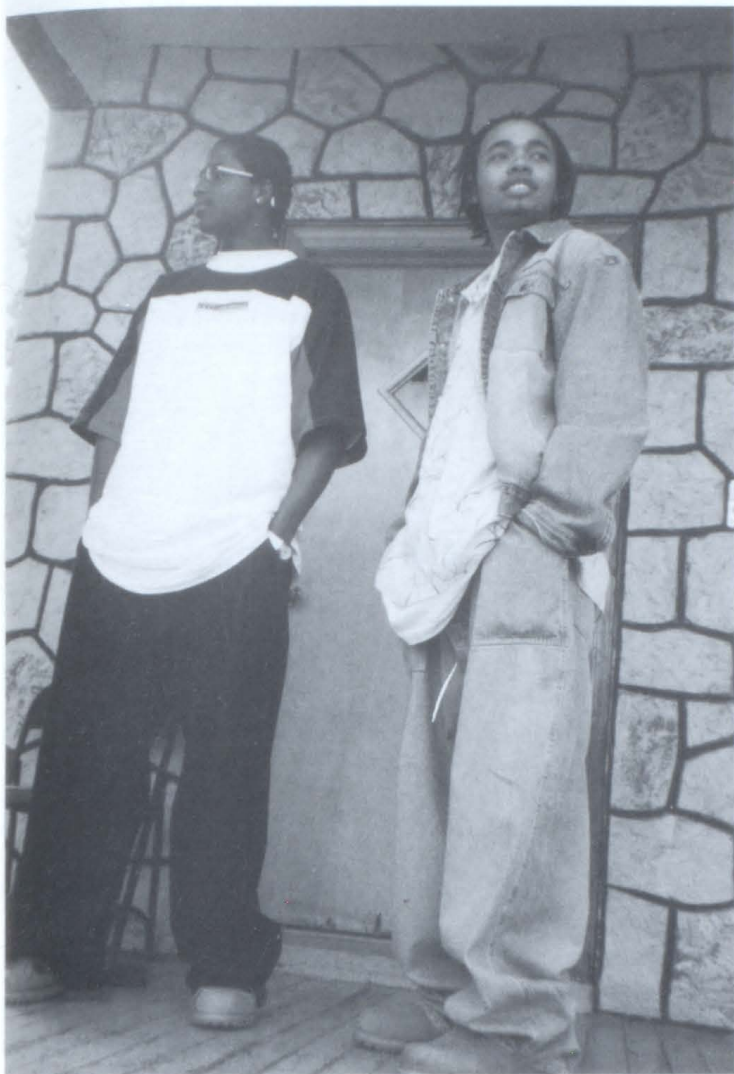

I was informed of the contest on the deadline of the contest. I thought I had no way of making the deadline. Mrs. Williams and Mr. Hylton had great confidence in me. Mr. Hylton and I worked throughout the day to create a presentable piece for the contest.

Between the computer freezing and the printer deciding not to print, it seemed a long shot. But by the grace of God and my undeniable ability; what was a rush job proved to be first place material.

It just goes to show you that anything is possible when you have people that believe in you, you study and gain the necessary skills to believe in your ability and you're highly motivated with a cash prize of $500.00."

Mrs. Beckom, substitute teacher, was a common fixture at Weequahic High School. She substituted in many of the departments. The students admired her "pied piper" personality. She was always willing to help whenever and however she could. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to her family, the Weequahic family and her son, Sean Biggs, a member of the Class of 2001. CLASS OF 2001 "LEGEND" YEARBOOK STAFF

SENIOR CLASS EXECUTIVE BOARD

"Leadership is born out of understanding" -Marian Anderson

The O.B.A..... the "voice" of Weequahic High

The Student Council members (OBA - Orange and Brown Association) collect ideas, thoughts and concerns from their classmates to share with the advisor (who is the mediator). Then the advisor meets with the principal to address the concerns and implement, where possible, the thoughts and ideas of "all" Weequahic's student body .

The O.B.A. is also responsible for helping to keep a positive image of the school as well as boosting school spirit amongst their peers.

The O.B.A. has distributed, along with the Close-Up Club, Thanksgiving baskets to needy members of the community. They have also donated Christmas toys to children in the hospital during the holidays.

Alake Lawal understands the plan, but Raheem Lawton is still puzzled.

Latoya Ingram and Gwendolyn Lindsey share their thoughts for future activities with Ms. Howard.

Raheem, Idesha, Alake and Asha share the spotlight with Ms. Howard, advisor.

SCHOLARS CLUB

Advisor: Loistene Clark

Scholars Club members are students who earn High Honors, Honors, or Honorable Mention any marking cycle during the school year. Membership is not mandatory, but it is encouraged. Scholars Club members are school leaders and role models for other students. They are also encouraged to become leaders in their community.

PEER GROUP

Learning conflict resolution as an effective school-based approach to violence prevention....

Weequahic High School Peer Leaders attended a three day conference / training session hosted by The Institute for Prevention at Saint Barnabas Behavioral Health Network Center. At the conference peer leaders were introduced to the manual and taught leadership skills, presentation and anger management techniques. The students also participated in role play activities which illustrated the importance of listening and communication in understanding conflict resolution.

A Message Of Encouragement

"As salutatorian of the Weequahic High School graduating Class of 2001, I leave you with a quote borrowed from my Upward Bound Director, Mr. Culpepper, at Stevens Institute of Technology. It is a quote that will guide me throughout life. It states, "If you always do what you've always done, you will always get what you've always gotten."

This quote has motivated me to complete everything I set out to do. It has kept me from settling for mediocrity and it has kept me reaching for superiority which can be acquired with motivation and a focused mind.

The key to success is structure. You must know your weak points and your strong points. If you know this and you are willing to use these points to your advantage, you will succeed."

Weequahic wins the Group II State Basketball Tournament

Indians bring it home !

The Weequahic Varsity basketball team proved what everyone knew....they are a winning group of young men.

With a record of 26-2, Weequahic it's first State Group II Basketball Championship title since 1973 at Rutgers Athletic Center in New Brunswick, NJ. The team rallied to edge Pleasantville High in overtime 91-90. Nagee Johnson was fouled after his 2 point shot that tied the game 90-90. Nagee then stepped to the foul line with less than 7 seconds left in the game. He focused, he shot, he hit, giving Weequahic a 1 point lead. The team wanted to celebrate then, but Pleasantville still had time for one shot. They dribbled down court, shot and missed . Weequahic won!

Martin Luther King III come to Weequahic

"Spread the word ! Haven't you heard ? All across the nation, this is gonna be a great generation."

On November 15, 2000, Martin Luther King III came to Weequahic High. The 10th, 11th and 12th graders were buzzing in great anticipation. Mr. Benjamin O'Neal, Asst. Superintendent of SLT II, along with Principal Edna Bailey, welcomed and introduced Mr. King. Also present were Assemblyman Payne, Commissioner of N.J. Corrections Jack Terhune and other elected officials and community leaders. Mr. King spoke about The Life Skills Academy. Its purpose is to stress education and coping skills, so that few young people fall victim to their ignorance or the criminal justice system, and to assist in the re-integration of young adults back into the society. "When you know who you are you understand that God did not make you for jail. Remember you are a gift from God."

The students listen attentively as Mr. King shares his message of enlightenment and encouragement.

Students "Speak Out & Vote"

On November 1, 2000 the students at Weequahic High School participated in a school wide mock election. The election was sponsored by the Sisters About Progress Organization, Mrs. Rashid, advisor in conjunction with the Weequahic Student Council, Ms. Howard, advisor. The students were able to meet the the candidates as they went from classroom to classroom giving brief speeches, before casting their final vote.

The final results decided Al Gore would be President of the United States and John Corzine would be the United States Senator for the State of New Jersey.

Voting is the best way to make change. All students were encouraged to participate in this process.

*Class of 2001
Weequahic High School
Newark, New Jersey*

To my sons and daughters,

The class of 2001 has a special place in my heart and forever in my memory. Many of you were students in my tenth grade language arts class when you were sophomores. That was my first year of teaching. Each time I see you in the halls as seniors, I recall something about that important event in my life. I also remember those who are not here to graduate. That is why I consider you as my sons and daughters.

They say that high school is the most remembered time of your life. For that reason they also say that it is the best time of your life. It was for me and I am sure that this yearbook will play an important part of those memories in years to come. Protect it as you would any heirloom that marks a milestone in your life.

You will remember the good times and the not so good times, the successes and the opportunities to learn from failure, the popular people and even the unpopular ones, the people with special talents and the people who applauded them. Everyone contributes in significant ways to the memory of high school. Seek pleasure in the talents of those who made your graduating class one to be remembered. The only thing in life that does not part from this earth is the truth that is written in our memories.

Futhermore, remember your advisors, Ms. Robinson and Mr. Tilley, in your prayers. Keep the spirit you created in this yearbook alive in your hearts and minds. Pray for yourself and on occasion, don't pray, just listen to that spirit. Unplug the television, CD, cell phone, PC and everything else that blocks you from the truth. Try very hard to close your eyes and listen and I promise you will hear the truth from the spirit that is within you and your memories of this time and the life you have laid out before you.

I count each and every one of you as blessings in my life, like my own sons and daughters. With that I have an enduring and infinite number of blessings and truths, which will live forever and ever.

*Truth, love and prosperity,
Tiger Tom Tilley, The Terror of Temple, Texas.*
